Mr. F. R. Burkhardt tells us he has a flower-bush in his yard that has, by actual count, 2,120 bunches of flowers thereon. Who can beat it.

The Crayon of Gov. Scales is alone worth the subscription price of THE SENTINEL. Pay up to January 1st '87 and get a copy before they are all gone.

On last Saturday, while Mr. Dave Knott was working upon a chimney in Salem, the scaffold broke, which caused him to receive very painful injuries.

We call attention to the advertisement of Chas. A. Wood & Co., who manufacture the Philadelphia Silver Sewing Machine, which they offer for twenty dollars.

THE SENTINEL return thanks to Mr. J. H. Shore for a handsome invitation to Rutherford College Commencement which takes place May 25th and 26th.

The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of this place will hold a Festival and Apron Bazaar in Bittling Hall, on Thursday evening May 13th, from 2 to 12 p. m. An enjoyable evening and plenty of good things are promised those who will aid the ladies in their church work.

The Winston Fire Company at a meeting Monday night offered a vote of thanks to the R. & D. R. R. for courtesy extended them in transporting the company and engine to Greensboro free of charge. Thanks were also tendered to the fire department of Greensboro and the citizens who extended them a hearty welcome. The company also accepted invitations to participate in the 10th of May exercises.

On last Saturday night about 12 o'clock, one of our citizens, under the influence of whiskey, through a mistake went to the door of Mr. N. M. Dean and knocked. Mr. Dean went to the door, but finding no one there, he slipped to the back door, where he saw a man going around his wood shed, supposing it to be a thief, he got his gun and was in the act of shooting when he discovered who the man was. This is another lesson to those who take on too much "tangle-leg" to be careful whose house they drop into when under its influence.

Was the Horse Stolen?

About three weeks ago, Mr. Israel Robinson, of Belevs Creek, came to Winston and put his horse in one of the stalls at the Piedmont Warehouse.

The next morning when Mr. Robinson went to feed his horse, it was nowhere to be found. After diligent search and inquiry, he concluded that it had been stolen, and he thereupon returned to his home. He again came to Winston the next day to see if he could find the whereabouts of the animal, but all in vain.

On last Monday week, one of the employees at the warehouse found a horse in one of the stalls and said he had noticed it there for several days without feed. Examination was at once made by others who stated that it was Mr. Robinson's horse, and notifying Mr. N. H. Medearis, (Mr. R.'s son-in-law), it was found to be the same horse left there.

It is now a matter of conjecture as to whether the horse was stolen and brought back or placed into another stall; if so, the animal remained there eleven days without food or drink.

Graded School Notes.

The school closes on Friday of this week, when graded tickets for next year will be given to all who may have passed the examinations. Diplomas and medals will be presented to members of the class. Prof. Wm. A. Blair, of Johns Hopkins University, will deliver the literary address.

On Thursday night the school entertainment will be given at the Opera House, having been postponed from last week to this date.

Lack of space prevent our publishing the program of the Decoration day exercises. Maj. T. J. Brown is Chief Marshal, which is a sufficient guarantee that the program will be successfully carried out. A full account of the ceremonies will appear in THE SENTINEL next week.

He purchased 54 acres, more or less, being the Jack Kenton farm, of Albert Wheeler, for which he paid $40 per acre.
